Entered January 27, 1905, at Richmond, Va., THE AUDITORIUM AND THE COLORso second-class matter under act of Con-gress of March 2, 1872.

See that the large against and have been designed and the large against and the large ag

the Government will be responsible was elected Commander-in-Chief of are needed is really better than for the happiness and prosperity of all. If the Government will only fix in the seventy-fifth year of his age, good many advantages over Nature, the price of corn at the figure paid Jerry Moore, namely $4$ the bushel, we promise that the South wil raise on through the vale of death to the provided for the use of Science.

Was elected Commander-in-Chief of are needed is really better than that great body of heroes, and now, the new method. Science has had a in the seventy-fifth year of his age, good many advantages over Nature, he has passed on to join the innumera-seeing that it has been able to make the Democracy of Virginia. There is a strong militant party of the use of Science. By Times-Dupatch Carrier Delivery Ser- lina and Virginia grown corn is not sice in Richmond (and suburbs) and Peters. a cent too much. At any rate, the Wickersham Price-Fixing Board or cent, of the applicants examined at the naval recruiting station in Memphis were found to be bow-legged, that is pretty good evidence that parents in that section encourage their offspring to toddle before their little legs are ready for such exercise.

At a special meeting of the

"Few persons are born bow-legged; either they acquire bow-leggedness, or, what is more likely, have bow-leggedness thrust upon them. Certainly nobody is bow-legged by choice. There are certain curves of the human body that are to be desired, but outward curving of the nether limbs to not that kind. Bow less are that the can be bend the bow with F. Devine Pickle or Gerald Palmer Edmunds, the Shelley of Fairfield.

Voice of the People

Thomas S. Martin.

To the Editor of The Times-Dispatch; Sir,—I have known Thomas S. Martin for three decades, served upon the content of the proposed proposed to the proposed proposed to the people of the proposed pro

The Cimes Carry Dispatch

Regulating the seller, it must also

DAILY—WEEKLY—SUNDAY.

Wickersham scheme is a great one. South with great ability and fidelity laid by frogs, with the use of a fine platinum needle subjected to electric crats do not place the same estimate undersigned had no control, and it upon them that they place upon them that they place upon them that they place upon them solves begin the own of sine platinum of the United discharges, it would seem that the old upon them that they place upon them solves begin the own of sine platinum of the United discharges, it would seem that the old upon them that they place upon them solves begin the own of sine platinum of the United discharges, it would seem that the old upon them that they place upon them solves begin the own of sine platinum of the United discharges, it would seem that the old upon them that they place upon them solves begin the own of sine platinum of the United discharges, it would seem that the old upon them that they place upon them solves begin the own of sine platinum of the United discharges.

Valker, head of the or- bow-legged men in Memphis, Tenn., Charlotte Observer has found a gem,

Navy because of this alleged physical defect, and in the development of his subject makes sundry posthogal than the development of his subject makes sundry posthogal than the carried herself with quite a dash,

Nough none as yet had been so rash to the himself to her blue sasn; Sach fall her hopes have come to crash; The boys rush back to town and hash, and the maiden still is Irene Nash."

No name is given by the Observer, but whoever the author is he can bend the how with F. Devine Pickle or Gerald Palmer Edmunds, the Sheliey of Fairfield.

Voice of the People

Thomas S. Martin.

To the Editor of The Times-Dispatch; Sir.—I have known Thomas S. Martin for three decades, served upon the Democratic State Committee with him for years, fought shoulder to shoulder for years, fought shoulder to shoulder for years, fought shoulder to shoulder with him through the most memorable campaigns ever waged in Virginia—campaigns ever wage re certain curves of the huy that are to be desired, but curving of the nether limbs hat kind. Bow legs are the carelessness, not on the part infortunate possessor, but of id enough to know better." re disposed to agree with Taft that the condition of omplaint has been made and has doubtless deprived the

on through the vale of death to the solden spires of day shining above the heights on the farther shore. There will be weeping and lamentation that this splendid old soldier has gone from among us forever; but the memory of his gallant deeds and faithful service in war and peace will long survive.

A GOVERNMENT ROARD ON NOW LEGS.

Brother Charles P. Taft protests in the presence of the Governor.

Brother Charles P. Taft protests in the solden spires of day shining above the golden spires of day shining above the use of Science.

When Governor Blease entered the court-house in Spartanburg the other court-house in Spartanburg to ther court-house in Spartanburg the other court-house in Spartanburg the other court-house in Spartanburg to other court-house in Spartanburg to other court-house in Spartanburg to other cou

Taft protests inTaft protests inIncinnal TimesIntal carelessness
Ital careless

invented for lending the principal of the fund rather than the interest only, to young men and women who possess these qualifications—a good Christian chabitater, good natural abilities, and habitater, good natural abilities, good natural abilities of her wonderful policy for the principal abilities of her wonderful policy for the principal abilities of her wonderful policy for the policy for his work.

Screetary, Christian Relief, Relief, United States.

The Students' Loan Pund.

It gives us pleasure to state for the information of all concerned that the refurchment of all concerned that the information of all concerned that can justly claim to be her superior.

I have made the same request about the call for applicants to the students' toan fund to three other great journals, located in different parts of our territory, that as many as possible may be advised of this opportunity to receive aid in their struggles for a good education. Please do them this kindness.

Secretary Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, Presbyterian Church, United States.

Daily Queries and Answers

Orphan Brigade.

Tell me, please, the town the Orphan Brigade of Kentucky had last fight int what State; how soon after the fight came the surrender?

COLONEL.

The Kentucky troops known as the Orphan Brigade were very much re
The Kentucky troops known as the Orphan Brigade were very much re
St. I English inches.

Corbett-Fitzsimmons Fight.

Will you please publish the date, month and year of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight, when the latter won from Corbett?

FIGHT FAN.

Carson City Nev. March 17, 1897.

WARWICK MAY REPAIR SHATTERED FORTUNE

BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY.

Lord WARWICK is leaving England this month, with a large staff of engineers, to examine an extensive tract of coal and timber land in British Columbia, bordering on the United States, and in which he has acquired a preponderant interest. Should the enterprise turn out successfully, he may yet manage to restore the safly impaired fortunes of his earloom, and those of his wife, who at the time of her marriage was regarded as a great heiress. So straitened, indeed, have the circumstances of Lord and Lady Warwick become of late years, that they have been compelled, not merely to offer the countess's favoritie home in the counters of the county of content of the county of London, the Secretary of State-for the Home Description of the counters of the county of police under the large for the counters of police under the large for the state of the county of police under the large for the state of the county of the count of criminal appeal; that in the case of several offenses by the cas of the kind having been done since the reign of Charles II.

That Winston Churchill should ar-rogate to himself, as Secretary of the Home Department, the right of quash-ing and commuting, or else remitting the punishment of an offender, after conviction, in the name of the sov-creign, who has the power of pardon, is one thing. But that he should take uppn himself to order the course of justice to be stopped before the offender. justice to be stopped before the offender is brought to trial, and grant a prover criminal immunity before conviction shape of misfortune that overtook her.

Now, however, their rancer has dimit shed, k'ndlier feelings prevail, and severybody will be gisd if her husband's tenture in British Columbia proves a financial success, and restores the shattered fortunes of the carldom.

Winston Churchill has stirred up no end of trouble for himself by his extraordinary action in issuring order to the chief constable of Warwickshire to refrain from executing several
to the chief constable of Warwickshire to refrain from executing several of hard labor in Reading jail, for offenses of an analogous character.
Had it not been for Winston Churchill's interference, she would have been ar drested immediately on leaving the prison gates.

The warrants had been issued to the chief constable in due form by the magistrates of Warwick, Birmingham and other places in the county, and the question has been naturally raised and the propagate.

His action is utterly without precedent. There are some who insist that he should have watted until the execution of the warrants.

His action is utterly without precedent. There are some who insist
that he should have watted until the sovereign. Others again argue the should have watted until the should have watted until the
and could then have exercised the royal
that since a Secretary of State, to say
and Lord Eggremont against John
the sovereign. Others again argue that since a Secretary of State has
and Lord Eggremont against John
the sovereign of charles II.

Woman had been re-arrested and tried,
and could then have exercised the royal
that since a Secretary of State, to say
and Lord Eggremont against John
the sovereign of charles II.

That Winston Churchill should arrest the execution of warrants
though there is no record of anything of the kind having been done since the reign of Chrises II.

That Winston Churchill should arrest the regular to the regularly. No woman can tell, when shire the regular to the series of the restored the regularly. No woman can tell, when shire the cartery of the t

It's a wise woman who puts a little money in the savings bank regularly. No woman can tell when she'll need money pretty badly. The National State and City Bank has many women among its depositors. Why not prove your thrift and wisdom by becoming one of them?

National State and City Bank,

RICHMOND, VA.
Wm. H. Palmer, President,
John S. Ellett, Vice-President,
Wm. M. Hill, Vice-President,
J. W. Sinton, Vice-President,
Julien H. Hill, Cashier.